Criteria For Success:

J likes apps that are designed not to be used. He wants to set up something and have it work forever.

Needs

- Needs to keep track of his dogs
- Just needs a method that works, and isn't full of ads or costs a bunch.

Wants

- J would rather not have to change batteries all the time
- Would like to know if he has to change the batteries on his tracker

Values

- Simplicity
- Ease of Use
- Dogs

Fears

- His dogs are going to get lost
- Tracker microtransactions will hit him when he's low
- He'll get busted and won't be able to pay for closed source solutions and he'll lose his ability to see his dogs

Criteria For Success:

S's ideal world is one where he doesn't have to work. All he wants to do is love his fowl his way: from afar.

Needs

- A system he doesn't have to manage when he's teaching
- An easy to use interface

Wants

- A system that shows the location of each keet in realtime
- A system with no ads or payments

Values

- Ease of use
- Longevity
- FOSS

Fears

- He fears his neighbors' dogs will jump his creek and eat his guinea fowl.
